

The Nigerian Society of Engineers, LAGOS BRANCH

Website: www.nse-lagos.org.ng

email: nselbsecretariat@gmail.com

April 2024 eNewsletter

---

Dear Lagos Engineers, we present for your reading pleasure this month edition of our e-newsletter containing the branch activities in April 2024

Lagos Branch Exco members held her April Executive meeting on Tuesday 9th April, 2024. The meeting was online via zoom

NSE Lagos Branch held her General meeting on Tuesday 16th April, 2024 with a technical session on the topic :” The Electricity and Communications Regulations and Practices of Nigeria” delivered by Engr. Emmanuel Akinwole, FNSE.

The facilitator commenced the lecture by enumerating the role of electricity and communication in society, indicating the importance in providing energy for homes, industries, communities and cities including the economic impact. He discussed the lecture further with the following subtitle,

- .The need for regulations and standard
- . Analysis of electricity and communication regulations
- . The scope of NERC regulations 2018
- . The role of electricity act 2023
- . Constitutional amendment in electricity reforms
- . The scope of NCC Act 2003
- . The scope of COREN Act 2022
- . The scope of CIPEN Act 2023
- . The design of electrical and electricity engineering services

He concluded with the operation and maintenance of electrical and electronic engineering equipment and facilities.

NSELB Chairman, excos and members went on industrial / technical visit to Quantum Steel Nigeria Limited at Km 16, off Sagamu-Ikorodu Road, Ogun State on Thursday 18th April, 2024

NSE Lagos Branch in collaboration with Engineering Resource Academy organized “Young Engineers Internship Program (YEIP) from April 22nd – May 4th 2024 at Oyebolu Engineering Resource Centre, Works & Physical Planning Department, University of Lagos.

